Newsletter – Week 4 – Friday 30th September 2022

Mr Brooks' Top Three Proud Moments:

1: Our Year 2 boys who represented the school so well at football on Thursday. The children worked well as a team and supported each other throughout the competition.

2: Our Reception Teddy Bear's picnic, which was organised by our fantastic PTA. It was lovely to see the Reception and Year 6 buddies working together with our parents.

3: Our Reading Council have been working hard this week to number the books so that they are linked to Accelerated Reader. Their input has been fantastic in designing our new school library. Once the library is fully finished, we will share the finished result with you all.
